SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 10. 1743.

Rome, August 24.

WE take daily all imaginable Precautions, in order to preserve, if poſſible, the Eccleſiaſtical State from that Infection which certainly reigns in Calabria. His Holineſs acquires, every Day, more and more the Affection of his Subjects, as he applies himſelf continually to the Means of giving them Eaſe; and has actually under his Eye, at preſent, a Project for procuring them Corn at a very cheap Rate. On the 17th we celebrated here the Anniverſary of his Elevation to the Pontificate. Card. Ruffo, who is at preſent Dean of the Sacred College, carried him the Compliments of that venerable Body. On the 18th his Holineſs went to the Church of St. Mary of the Angels, where, after having adored the Sacrament, which was expoſed on the Altar of St. Bruno, he celebrated, at the great Altar, the low Maſs pro vitanda mortalitate tempore peſtilentiæ; after which, he aſſiſted on Foot at a Proceſſion, to which his Holineſs had granted an Indulgence, in Form of a Jubilee. He walk'd between his Major Domo and the Maſter of his Chamber, attended by 18 Cardinals, Patriarchs, Archbiſhops, Biſhops, the Governor of this City, the Conſtable Colonna, as Prince of the Throne, the Conſervators of the Roman People, the Ambaſſador from Bologna, the Ambaſſador at Malta, the Conſiſtorial Advocates, the Auditors of the Nota, with all the Officers of the Pope's Privy Chamber, and a Multitude of other Prelates. On the 21ſt we celebrated the Coronation of the Pope; on the 22d the Chevalier de St. George went to the Quirinal, and had an Audience, in order to compliment his Holineſs on his entering on the 3d Year of his Reign. We have certain Advice, that on the one Hand the Spaniards have landed a great Quantity of Ammunition in Civita Vecchia, and that, on the other, the Count de Gages has detach'd a Body of 800 Horſe, to eſcort it to the Spaniſh Camp. We are very impatient to ſee how the Engliſh and Auſtrians will behave on this Occaſion.

Berlin, September 7. On the 2d of this Month Baron Upon, the new Imperial Miniſter, had Audience of his Majeſty, and was remarkably well receiv'd. In the Evening his Majeſty went to ſup with the Queen-Mother, and from thence to Charlottenberg; his Majeſty return'd to this City on the 4th, and went the next Day to viſit the Arſinal, and ſaw the Artillery and Ammunition that he has order'd to be ſent into Sileſia. M. Voltaire is become his Majeſty's Sadow, with which, it is thought, ſome of the principal Miniſters are not very well pleas'd, becauſe of the Forwardneſs of that Gentleman's Temper, and his Diſpoſition to remark upon every Thing he hears and ſees.

Paris, September 10. We learn from Plombiers, that Marſhal Belleiſle is pretty well recover'd, and, it is thought, that as ſoon as he is able to ſerve he will command in Franche-Comte. M. Mallebois will not have the Command of the Troops in Italy, as moſt People expected; they are to join the Spaniards as Auxiliaries, and to have no higher Officer than a Lieutenant-General, and are to be abſolutely under the Diſpoſal of Don Philip. 'Tis a Thing certain, that M. Noailles will command no longer than this Campaign, unleſs the King ſhould hereafter command in Perſon. His Place will be ſupplied by Count Coigny, and Count Maurice of Saxony will reſume the Command of the Troops in Upper Alſace. The French Guards, who have long had a Cauſe before the Parliament againſt the Wine Merchants of this City, have at length carried it, and for the future they are to be allow'd a Publick Houſe, where they may drink, without the Maſter's being ſubject at all to that Corporation. We thought the Swiſs tried this Cauſe at a very proper time, ſince it is certain, that the Court lays hold of every Opportunity poſſible to oblige that Nation; and as the Wine Merchants are of that Opinion, and aſcribe the Loſs of their Cauſe to Prince Charles being with his Army on the Rhine.

The following is an exact Copy of the original Letter from which all the Accounts of Prince Charles of Lorrain being repuls'd, are founded.

Extract of a Private Letter from the Camp at Saffenheim, dated September 4.

'Laſt Night, between 10 and 11 o'Clock, M. Coigny receiv'd Advice, that the Enemy had begun to cannonade ſeveral of our Poſts; in the firſt Place, that of Guiſlampe, next Little Landau; and laſtly, Fort Morland. He immediately iſſued his Orders for ſtriking the Tents, ſaddling the Horſes, and being in conſtant Readineſs to march; in which Situation we remain'd all Night, and were kept all alive, and buſy, by the Thunder of the Cannon on both Sides.

'This Morning, at Six o'Clock, Orders were given for ſending away the Baggage; and at Seven, the Marſhal receiv'd Advice from Lieutenant-General Balincourt, who commanded the Troops encamp'd at Little Landau; that he had repuls'd, and entirely deſtroy'd a Body of the Enemy's Troops, which, to the Number of 3000, had paſs'd the Rhine; and of theſe, at leaſt two-thirds were Grenadiers. This Succeſs inſtantly determin'd his Excellency to march where the Enemy were ſtrongeſt, and where they had fixed a Bridge, and paſſed over to an Iſland in the Rhine, over-againſt old Briſac, call'd Raymarckt; from whence they have only a ſmall Branch of the Rhine to paſs, in order to come to us. They are ſaid to be about 9 or 10,000; but then we too have a Bridge which reaches to this Iſland, the Head of which is cover'd by a very ſtong Work.

'By the Means of this Bridge we propoſe to attack them in the Night, and hope to be as lucky as M. Balincourt, either to force them to repaſs the Rhine, or to take up their Lodgings in it. On the Road the Marſhal receiv'd a Letter, by which M. Balincourt informs him, that till further Particulars could be had, he thought it requiſite to let his Excellency know, he had collected about 180 Priſoners in the Church of Little Landau, amongſt whom there were ſeveral Officers, and a Lieutenant-Colonel; and that almoſt all who were not taken, were either kill'd or drowned; ſo that he could not judge the Loſs of the Enemy to be leſs than 2000 Men. This Poſt was attack'd by Prince Waldec, under the Eye of Prince Charles of Lorrain.

'M. de Balincourt adds, that it was impoſſible to commend the Valour of our Troops too much, particularly the Regiment of Champagne, and Hopital's Dragoons. That at the very Inſtant he was writing, the Enemy cannonaded his Poſt with greater Violence than ever; and, to heighten their Civilities, intermingled every Quarter of an Hour a Shower of Bombs; that from thence he gather'd, they intended him another Viſit, and therefore he had given Orders for making every Thing ready to afford them a good Reception.

'The Enemy loſt, in their late Attempt, about 50 of the Boats in which they paſs'd over, and which were to be made uſe of in forming their Bridges. About 30 of them came down the Rhine to us, and we took care to ſend them to the Bottom as they paſs'd. M. Coigny ſtopt in the Field to write an Anſwer in his Pocket-Book, which he ſent to M. Balincourt, directing him to convey his Priſoners to Schleſtadt, under a good Eſcort. It is now but 3 o'Clock, and we every Moment expect to hear ſomething ſtill more important.

P. S. 'We had but 5 kill'd, and 55 wounded. There did not eſcape one of the Enemy; the Officers who are come hither from Prince Charles, to enquire after the Priſoners, believ'd we had taken 2000 Men.'

The so-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHich in a few Days infallibly cure HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in MEN, and the VAPOURS in WOMEN, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual: and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as removing the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels; which Crudities, offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Starting, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be sensible that are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star in Cornhill, below the Royal Exchange, at 3 s. 6 d. the Bottle with printed Directions at large.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest and most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Evacuation or the least Purging, which by an unaccountable Infatuation is generally advised, although always found rather to increase than confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much famed and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do at once hit at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and intirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them, in 3 Days time will be convinced that they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black or blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages (whereby proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, besides that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they also assuredly and immediately cure the Green-sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and consequently prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and affoon as taken, make the Face pleasantly Lightsom, Brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to restore sound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and pleasant Chymical Drops have so universally gain'd among Persons of Distinction for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, both under the same, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceiv'd; but be sure to have the Right, which are the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the Gentlewoman's, at the Two Blue Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in Minories, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
